Temporary Work

Temporary work is an attractive alternative to a traditional permanent position and allows you to progress your career in a way that is most suited to you. Temporary work is a positive option for many individuals at certain points in their career and can often provide you with a professional edge and a wide range of skill sets only possible to achieve in the varied world of “temping”.

LSBU Employment focuses on being the highest quality service provider in the business and is dedicated to providing the best temporary opportunities in the marketplace. Your success is our success and we look forward to building a strong working relationship with you.

What is temping?

In simple terms, temp work is a period of non-fixed term employment where a position can last from one day to several months. You are typically paid on a pre-agreed hourly rate basis and assignments can be full or part-time. You are entitled to 28 days holiday per year and this will be accrued throughout your assignment.

The benefits to you

Joining the temporary workforce is no longer viewed as just a “stop-gap” but a career choice and can provide you with a number of additional benefits:

- Flexibility
- Independence
- Competitive rate of pay
- More frequent income stream (if paid hourly)
- Timesheets are submitted weekly
- Gain new skills/systems knowledge and enhance your CV
- Exposure to a variety of sectors and terminologies
- Experience different work cultures and environments with different management styles
- Can bridge the gap between permanent jobs
- You are more “appealing” to a potential employer than a candidate who is not working
- Ideal “test bed” when re-entering the workplace
- Meet new people and expand your network
